OLDEST INHABITANTS TO HOLD CELEBRATION

Thirty-eighth Anniversary to Be Appropriately Observed.

The Association of the Oldest Inhabitants met at their room No. 2, Corcoran Building, last evening. S. Thomas Brown, president, in the chair.

Under the head of report of committees, Nicholas Watkins submitted articles of incorporation, in lieu of articles previously recorded, correcting former inaccuracies, and the report was unanimously adopted.

The chair appointed the following committees to serve for the current year: Finance, J. Richard Riggles, John R. Major, Daniel Hannan, Entertainment, A. H. Ragan, Albert Grupe, T. V. Noonan.

Fred G. Calvert, notary public, witnessed the signatures of the incorporators gratuitously, for which he received the thanks of the association.

Nicholas Watkins moved that the association celebrate its thirty-eighth anniversary December 7 next, which was agreed to and a committee appointed to further the object.

The meeting was largely attended and much interest manifested.

CONTRACTS AWARDED FOR BIG TRUNK SEWER

D. E. McComb, superintendent of sewers of the District, has recommended to the Commissioners that the contract for the construction of section B of the H Street and New Jersey Avenue trunk sewer be awarded to Guiney, Jones & Cavan, and that the contract for the construction of section C of the same sewer be awarded to Andrew Gleason.

The Commissioners have also approved the recommendation of Mr. McComb that the contract for furnishing material for the sheet pile core for the siphon chamber walls at the sewage pumping station be awarded to Forsberg & Murray.

SUIT BY STEPFATHER TO RECOVER PROPERTY

George W. Bowles has filed a petition in the Supreme Court of the District, to compel George Ockstadt to convey to him part of lot 15, in square 894, which is improved by two brick houses. He says he is entitled to possession and ownership to the property in question under the terms of an ante-nuptial agreement between himself and his wife, Gertrude Bowles, who was the widow of George L. Ockstadt. Leon Tobner is named as counsel for the complainant.

DEATH RECORD.

The following deaths have been reported to the Health Office for the twenty-four hours ending at noon today: Frederick Rose, 60 years.
 Charles G. Almy, 48 years.
 George Smith, 26 years.
 Edna Lee, 3 years.
 Arthur J. Noe, 1 year.

WORLD'S FAIR HOTEL FILES ITS ARTICLES

A certificate of the incorporation of the Columbia Hotel and Manufacturing Company was today filed in the office of the Recorder of Deeds. The object of the corporation is to buy and rent land for the purpose of erecting a World's Fair hotel. The capital stock is $2,000,000 and the incorporators, Samuel E. Edman, N. P. L. Reech and H. W. Herwick.

SWALLOWS LAUDANUM, BUT LIFE IS SAVED

In attempting to take a dose of medicine in the dark last night, John Weaver, twenty-five years old, living at Four-and-a-half and K Streets southwest, picked up a bottle of laudanum by mistake. As soon as he had swallowed it he realized his error and summoned assistance. He was removed to the Emergency Hospital, where prompt action by Drs. Dunn and Perkins saved his life.

NEGRO HAS TWO FITS AT THE SAME CORNER

Charles Pinkney, a negro, thirty years old, of 419 Seventh Street northeast, was taken with a fit at Fourth Street and Massachusetts Avenue northeast at 3:50 o'clock this morning, and was taken to the Casualty Hospital. After treatment he was discharged, and at 6:30 o'clock was passing the same corner, when he was seized with another fit. This time he was taken to Washington Asylum Hospital.
